

Human – Machine Interaction

3 examples

Human influences the interaction

Lock

A human has to turn the lock clockwise and anti-clockwise for the door to open or close.

Machine influences the interaction

Washing machine

The amount of time a washing machine takes influences when the human can get clean clothes.

Human and Machine equally influence the interaction

Mouse

The human has to physically move and click the mouse for an action to occur on the screen.